

Meath Tourism Ltd: D66

The Blackfriary Archaeological Excavation at Trim, Co Meath, Ireland – with Cultural Tourism Ireland

There are two options for visitors, either participation on the excavation (5 hours, for groups of up to twelve persons) or a guided visit of the excavation site (1 -3 hours for groups of up to 45 persons).

Visitors meet the passionate archaeologists excavating the 750 year old ruins of an impressive monastery. Visitors are guided through the discovery, process, learning what the artefacts found reveal about the medieval life here and hear the story of this wonderful medieval town.

Visits to the excavation are by prior arrangement, May through September 2012 – 2025.

Email Loloughlin@culturaltourismireland.ie

Tel. +353 1 296 8190 / +353 87 1175690

www.culturaltourismireland.ie

